Hi, Janet, here are some photos that I wanted to send to you. These photographs were taken in March of this year. Not much changed as far as whatever is going on in the yard below. Bill Cisco bought a small land across the street from my father's home. It turned into a mess as you can see. My father called the local fire department when workers tried to burn down the old travel trailer (in the picture). After the fire trucks left workers lit the trailer on fire again and the fire department had to come again.

Thank you for the info and I will be able to take more updated pictures of Natasha's property. Please, let me know if you have any questions.
I would like to know the dates of scheduled hearing on her property so that I can be there.
